Psalms of Summer
Psalm 103 - The Call to Praise the LORD

Family Meeting
DR Team and students!
Recap of two weeks - Thanks for prayer!

Ask the Pastors - Applying Total Depravity

- *Implies a fall: People have great worth to God as image bearers
- *Implies a need: People need to be saved/reconciled/redeemed/restored to God
- *Implies inability: People on their own cannot save themselves.
- *Implies a provision: God, through the Gospel, offers salvation/rescue to sinners.
- *Implies a responsibility: The church is called to pray/love/serve/share the gospel.

1. The Personal Call to Praise the LORD (103:1–5)

- *the object of praise - “the LORD” (1)
- *the action of praise - “bless” (1)
- *the place of praise - “all that is within me” (1)
- *the enemy of praise - “forget” (2)
- *the reason for praise - “all his benefits” (3–5)

2. The Communal Call to Praise the LORD (103:6–18)

- *He works for his people. (6)
- *He gives revelation to his people. (7)
- *He is merciful and gracious to his people. (8–14)
- *His love toward his people never ends. (15–18)

3. The Universal Call to Praise the LORD (103:19-22)

- *He is the King of all. (19)
- *He is the King of all angels. (20–21)
- *He is the King of all creation. (22)
